

Music

Intent

The Griffin Music curriculum is designed to inspire creativity, and encourage self-expression. Experiences are carefully planned to ensure exposure to music from across the world, through time, and across all main genres.

Students are given frequent opportunities to sing, create, compose and perform, both in class and through links with external organisations.

We want our students to recognise that music can be fully inclusive, and not just for those who are deemed to be 'musical'. Therefore, we place great emphasis on the exploration of music, music appreciation and music to support mental health and wellbeing.

A passion for music will be ignited, and students will leave us with a life-long love for the subject.

Implementation

Impact

“I don’t think we would be much without music. Music is memories.”
(Diamond, Year 4)

“Thank you so much for your kind words and never ending support with Sophie. This has truly made our day and we most definitely will celebrate with her. To say we're proud is an understatement and for her to play her Ukulele in front of 3 years!! Wow!! “
(Parent of Sophie, Year 3)
